SUMMER COMMENTS

Regarding Theatrical Folk and Other People Talked About.

The Metropolitan Opera Co. will appear in Louisville November 7th and 8th.

Lillian Lewis, the actress, died Sunday in Minnesota of consumption.

George Lederer has sued Lillian Russell for $15,000 for breaking a contract.

Dorothy Morton has filed a petition in bankruptcy—and is of course right up with the procession.

"Tod" Sloan, the jockey with the swollen head, was refused accommodation at the Waldorf-Astoria last week, on his return from England.

It is said that Richard Mansfield will shelve "Cyrauo de Bergerac" the coming season, because he wants more than one part, and Cyrauo and a repertoire would make too much of a load to carry.

Edward Milton Royle, who has been spending the summer in England, has arranged for a production there soon of his clever play, "Friends." It will likely be sent on a tour of the provinces.

Adelaide Norwood, who made a hit here last season with the Boston Lyrics, will go abroad this Fall to study at Paris and Milan. She is now singing in Summer opera at Chester Park, Cincinnati.

In order to avoid constables armed with injunction papers, which they proposed to served upon her, Actress Pauline Hall adopted a novel plan to gain admission to an Atlantic City theatre stage. The largest of her stage costume trunks was emptied of its contents and the inside lined with cotton batt. Miss Hall then doubled up her shapely limbs and squeezed her generous form into as small a space as possible and was carried into the theatre by a couple of stage employer.

Our baby was sick for a month with severe cough and catarrhal fever. Although we tried many remedies she kept getting worse until we used One Minute Cough Cure—it relieved at once and cured her in a few days.—B. L. Nance, Prin. High School, Bufdale, Texas.—W. T. Brooks,

REMARKS ON A HOT SUBJECT

Are not inappropriate even in hot weather. Some Coal is probably used in your house at all times. Why not always have it the best?

MOUNTAIN ASH JELICO is undoubtedly the Best Semi-Cannal Ever Mined. I have the Sole agency for this Celebrated Coal in Paris, and my prices on it are no higher. THEY ARE JUST WHAT YOU HAVE TO PAY FOR OTHER JELICOS.
